1. In Revelation, the Bible's last book, what did John see up in heaven? Revelation 1:9

3. How does the Bible describe those who trust in their own minds to guide them in making moral decisions? Proverbs 28:26

3. Since our energies are fallen, our hearts deceive us at times. It is need of a higher standard outside of ourselves.

3. We need a higher standard outside of our own personal desires. We need to face the fact that our behavior based on our own personal desires is easy to justify to ourselves.

2. Is our own heart or mind an adequate judge of ourselves? Jeremiah 17:9

choices, it is a call to a higher standard—a standard outside of obedience. God's call to judgment implies accountability and moral obedience. God's call to reverence God is a call to 'fear God,' means to respect or reverence God.

3. What urgent call does God give to a society that is on the verge of social collapse and moral decay? Revelation 14:7

3. What urgent call does God give to a society that is on the verge of social collapse and moral decay?
The Bible answer:

James 1:22-25
7. To what does the Bible compare God's law?
6:16, 22, 23, Romans 7:7, 25, Proverbs 3:27
Law brings sorrow, suffering, bondage, and death (Romans 7:7). Romans 3:23 indicates that every person has sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. God's law is the basis for His government. It was established to ensure the peace, order, harmony, and unity of the universe. A broken law is the foundation of His government.

The Bible answer:

God's Government Psalm 111:7, 8:6, 9:34
6. What is the external unchangeable standard of God's Government?

The Bible answer:

Romans 3:20
5. What is the function of God's law? Romans 3:20

The Bible answer:

Revelation 14:12
7. Describe His people. Revelation 14:12

The Bible answer:

Psalm 111:7, 8:6, 9:34
God's Government

MY PLEDGE
accept the principle of His law as the guide of my life.

MY DECISION
since I love Jesus with all my heart, I choose to obey Him faithfully every day.